

How much do YOU know about bullying in high school?

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| T | F | 1. Studies suggest that fewer than 5% of students are involved in bullying problems in high school. |
| T | F | 2. Students are more likely to be bullied in high school than in elementary or middle school. |
| T | F | 3. Most bullying is physical in nature. |
| T | F | 4. Girls are more likely than boys to bully others. |
| T | F | 5. Boys are more likely than girls to be involved in cyber-bullying. |
| T | F | 6. Students who are bullied are likely to tell a teacher or other member of the school staff. |
| T | F | 7. Bullying is just as likely on the way to and from school as during school hours. |
| T | F | 8. High school students who observe bullying do not feel sorry for those who are being bullied. |
| T | F | 9. As students get older, they are more likely to perceive that teachers and peers will act to stop bullying at school. |